

Job Title: CNC Miller

Basis: Permanent

Location: Scarborough

Unison Ltd is a world-class manufacturer of industrial tube bending machines supplying high-end products to a global market, with a wide variety of customers from small jobbing shops to the biggest international players in the Aerospace, Automotive and Marine sectors.

We currently have a full-time vacancy for a CNC miller working in a fast paced, expanding engineering workshop on nights 11pm – 7am.

Responsibilities & Requirements:

- CNC Milling and Programming using Heidenhahn controls
- Previous experience in a precision environment producing small batch components
- Ability to read mechanical drawings, set machines and work to precise tolerances
- Experience of CAD/CAM beneficial but not essential as full training given
- Formal qualification essential
- Ability to work on own using initiative but also as member of a team
- Experience of CNC or manual lathes advantageous
- Wage negotiable on experience. + shift allowance

Benefits

- 20 days holiday plus bank holidays
- Company pension scheme

To apply please email: enquiries@unisonltd.com with your CV and covering letter.

